MICRONEEDLING

During the procedure, a micropen creates controlled micro-injuries with tiny needles to stimulate collagen and elastin. It also forms channels that allow Platelet-Rich Plasma (PRP) or growth factors—derived from your own blood—to penetrate the skin and accelerate repair. Sculptra, a biostimulator, can also be used topically to support your body’s collagen production. When a targeted clinical topical is combined with microneedling, this allows for enhanced delivery and optimized treatment potential.
(must buy package of 3):

- ☐Face + Topical PRP $720 per session (regularly $900) or $675 w/$300+ skincare purchase
